OUR STORY

Cardiff Institute of the United Kingdom is an independent College founded in the UK by senior academics and educational pioneers. With our experience in helping establish the MBA programme and Business diplomas in a lot of Business Colleges, it specialises in MBA programmes and Executive Education. Our entity and network of associate fellows have worked with 500 companies and international governments to deliver massive transformation in leadership, company culture and International strategy and vision.

We are deeply committed to bringing change in the world through professional learning. CIUK are addressing the Key career challenge facing Generation Y and Millennials: how can they

Our Special tracks in MBA for many key differentiators; our professors provide learners with that opportunity, and our students are clear examples of the success of blended learning.

Our message has always been that blended learning is about you. Our students are part of our community, and our Executive MBA fits around their lives and commitments. But most importantly, It gives them the practical advantage of reaching and exceeding their career goals.

We're incredibly impressed by the passion and enthusiasm shown by those on our programmes. We are privileged to have some extraordinary talent studying with us, connecting to our community from all over the world, These people will change their world, and they inspire us on that journey. We hope that what you will read will inspire you to join our community.

PROGRAMME METHODOLOGY AND TOOLS

CIUK offers a unique and highly engaging way to learn vital business concepts. Our certificate and credential programmes are Offered via our innovative Methodology and are Designed to bring the CIUK classroom to you-putting you at the centre of the learning experience.

Our flexible programmes are designed to bring the Cardiff Institute classroom to you and are Built around three key characteristics: active, case-based, and social.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

The programme focuses on the essential business concepts and needed analytical tools using a combination of a business simulation and interactive lectures and discussions. Participants are introduced to several modules they have the opportunity to immediately apply what they have learned in an engaging and exciting learning environment. The programme is highly engaging and interactive, with Personal and small group exercises. The programme combines interactive sessions, group discussions, videos, presentations, case studies and brainstorming. The training environment combines a variety of tools as follows:

Active

CIUK courses are nothing like a typical sit-back-and-listen lecture. You'll engage in a new activity every three to five minutes. Each element is Designed to keep you interested, involved, and on your toes.

Social

Engaging with your peers is a big part of what makes CIUK unique. You exchange ideas, offer input, and seek out viewpoints from a community of learners Gathered from around the globe. In the process, you learn from each other's experiences and perspectives.

Case-Based

Immerse yourself in real-world learning. Lessons are brought-up to life through cases. Hear firsthand the Challenges they faced and wrestle with the same issues and imperfect information.
